

Linda Hall Miller, 69

Linda Hall (Adams) Miller passed away peacefully on April 27, 2017 in Herndon, VA at the age of 69.

Linda was born in Boston in 1947 and grew up in Duxbury. She attended Duxbury High School and earned an associate's degree from the Chandler School for Women in the 1960s. She moved to Virginia in the early 1970s and resided there until her passing. She battled multiple sclerosis for over 35 years, showing great courage, determination and strength in the face of this debilitating disease, and she spent many years advocating for people with disabilities on the Virginia Board of People with Disabilities. She kept a positive outlook and maintained an active social life right up until her passing.

Linda is survived by her loving family: daughter Kristen Delano Walter and husband John of Miami, FL and adoring grandchildren Teal and Brianna; sister Nancy Adams Bennett and husband Billy of Duxbury and nieces Deb and Nancy Lee and nephew Skip; sister Joan Osborne and husband Mark of Springfield, VA and niece Dawn; and brother Bill Adams.

A private service and internment will be held at Mayflower Cemetery in Duxbury. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her name to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. To offer condolences please visit Never-Gone.com/Memorials/lhmilller.
